Part 1.1 Preliminary

1 Model rules—application

This Constitution contains the rules of Friends of Grasslands Inc (the Association).

The Association's rules are almost wholly based on model rules found at Schedule 1 of Associations Incorporation Regulation 2023 (ACT) which came into effect on 1 February 2024 (Subordinate Law SL2023-25).

Note 1 The Association may, by special resolution, at any time, decide to adopt rules other than the model rules (see Act, s 33). However, if a rule is inconsistent with the Act or another law in force in the ACT, the rule has no effect (see Act, s 34). Also, if the model rules make provision for a matter not provided for in the Association's rules, the Association's rules are taken to include the provision of the model rules in relation to that matter (see Act, s 31 (2)).

Note 2 A special resolution requires at least 21 days notice and needs to be passed with at least $\frac{3}{4}$ of the votes (see Act, s 70).

2 Association objects

The objects of the Association are to halt and reverse the decline of grassy ecosystems by—

- (a) engaging in education of members of the Association and the wider community and other organisations;
- (b) contributing to hands-on conservation and management of specific areas and species;
- (c) advocacy and other forms of participation in political, consultative and administrative processes and the like, including—
 - (i) proactive measures such as identifying policies and regimes which would protect and enhance grassy ecosystems and to work to achieve their application by both the public and private sectors; and
 - (ii) reactive measures such as submissions on proposed and/or existing legislation and planning rules and proposals;
- (d) liaison and research including monitoring of measures proposed or taken by governments, ecological authorities and others; and

- (e) maintaining standards of behaviour that are respectful of grassy ecosystems as cultural landscapes and of collaborating with traditional custodians to manage healthy landscapes to support traditional and ongoing social economic, cultural and spiritual values.

Note The objects of the Association are the objects appearing in the statement of the Association's objects lodged with the registrar (see Act, s 29). The Association may alter its objects by special resolution (see Act, s 30).

3 Application of certain Acts

The following Acts apply to the Association's rules as if the rules were an instrument made under the Act:

- (a) the Electronic Transactions Act 2001;
- (b) the Legislation Act 2001.

Note 1 Under the Electronic Transactions Act 2001, s 8, information required to be given in writing may be given electronically. For example, applications for membership may be given by email.

Note 2 The Legislation Act contains definitions and other provisions relevant to the Association's rules.

Part 1.2 Membership

4 Membership—application

- (1) A person may apply to the committee to become a member of the Association.

- (3) As soon as practicable after deciding the application, the committee must give the applicant written notice of the decision.
