

LIVING GRASSLANDS

OF CANBERRA AND THE SOUTH-
EAST REGION

CONFERENCE '96
9 - 10 NOVEMBER
Australian National Botanic Gardens

C O N F E R E N C E 1 9 9 6

LIVING GRASSLANDS CONFERENCE

9 - 10 November, National Botanic Gardens

CONTENTS

1. The significance and status of Southeastern Australian Lowland Grasslands - a Summary and Update
Jamie Kirkpatrick, University of Tasmania
2. Conservation of Native Grasslands in New South Wales
John Benson, Royal Botanic Gardens, Sydney
3. Native Grasslands Restoration : A Project Management Nightmare?
Mike Snoad, Aquatech Environmental Consultants
4. Conservation of Vertebrate Fauna in Lowland Grasslands
Sandie Jones, University of Canberra
5. Grassland Invertebrates
Kim Pullen, CSIRO Division of Entomology
6. Identification of common grassland plants
Talk by Isobell Crawford
Drawings by Michael Bedingfield
7. Grassland Management in New SouthWales : the Evolution of an Approach
Dr Ian Garrard, NSW Department of Land and Water Conservation
8. Native Grassland Conservation and the art of the possible
Clive Thomas, Murray-Darling Basin Commission
9. Native grasslands of high conservation value as integral components of sustainable grazing enterprises : the "Oakley" case study
Rainer Rehwinkel, NSW National Parks and Wildlife Service
10. Landscaping and bush regeneration with native grassland plants
Leon Horsnell, Horticulturist
11. Umbagog Landcare Group : caring for the Blue Devil Grassland
Janette Hannan, Umbagog Landcare Group

Friends of Grasslands (FOG) would like to thank :

- the Australian Nature Conservation Agency
- The Australian National Botanic Gardens
- All the FOG volunteers who have cheerfully donated their time and enthusiasm
- Michael Bedingfield for his beautiful line drawings
- All our speakers and assistant field guides for donating their time and expertise